A Scotch Rival to Jenny Lind.

The Glasgow Herald gives the following curious story, vouching for its truth. Towards the end of the year 1846, when the typhus fever was making its ravages amongst the poor in the [illegible] districts of Glasgow, a female [illegible] was often heard singing at the edge of the pavement before the Western Club House. Her [illegible] consisted of little more than a petticoat and [illegible] shawl. With the latter she covered her face, head, breast, and shoulders.— One night when "winds whistled cold," and the rain was pouring down in torrents, two young [illegible] gentlemen were passing; they [illegible] and hurried on. Suddenly one of them stopped and said, "Do you hear that voice? What beauty and power? Does [illegible] save the possessor of such a voice [illegible] Shall a girl with such a [illegible] Heaven die from hunger, or worse?" "[illegible] what we can do," answered the [illegible] They returned but she was gone! [illegible] called the watchman of the district, and sought information from him; he could say very little about her. He did not know where she lived, nor what her name was, nor had he ever seen her face, but he gave her an excellent character, as far as he could judge. He was told to ask her name and address; and the girl agreed at last to visit a German lady, universally esteemed in Glasgow for her kindness and benevolence. Arrived there, and putting the jealous shawl aside, a pale, interesting face was discovered. The girl gave [illegible] reference as to her life. It appeared that she was a native of Edinburg; that having become destitute from the death of her father, and the illness of other members of her family, she resolved to try to make a precarious living by singing on the streets in the evenings. Being asked to sing, she readily complied. Mr. Seligmann, the well known professor of music, was present; but one of the young men said, "the voice of that [illegible] girl is not the one we admired so much." The girl insisted that she was the person in question, and by repeating the list of songs she was in the custom of singing, established beyond doubt that she was the individual in whom they seemed to take an interest. The matter remained unexplained at the time; and it was subsequently found out that the girl had a sister, who was then with a distant relation in Paisley, and who, when she happened to be in Glasgow, sometimes relieved her from the task of singing in the streets. The two girls were taken by the gentlemen and the watchman for the same, and the mistake was thus easily explained.— The second girl, who was the elder of the two, was sent for, and her voice soon proved her identity. Most satisfactory information as to her character having also been received, another [illegible] German lady instructed her in reading, writing, and other elementary branches of education; and Mr. Seligmann gave her singing and piano lessons. After more than two years instruction in Glasgow, it was considered expedient to send her to Germany to pursue a higher branch of musical study than this country affords. Thence, where she has been laboring successfully about eighteen months, we receive the most flattering accounts of her voice, the compass of which is from G below the lines to E flat in alt, nearly 3 octaves. We hear, moreover, that she makes great progress in every female accomplishment, and that she is received into the best society. As she is to appear soon in concerts in her native country, we consider it our duty to direct the attention of our readers to her history, and to interest them in her behalf. The name of the young lady, in whose elegant manners, lady-like deportment, and great musical abilities, no one would find out any trace of the street-singer, is Christiana Dawson.

Interesting Letter from Ex-Governor Shannon.

Governor Shannon of Ohio, in a letter to his family, dated San Francisco, August 26, gives the following dark picture of California:

That California presents at this time a bad prospect for those desirous to emigrate to that country. And he hopes that no more of his friends will be found coming there. The great mass already there are not realizing a sufficiency to support them. All the localities where gold is found are becoming so densely crowded, that it is with difficulty a place can be secured. Every branch of business is becoming crowded. Even the law is not so profitable as formerly, owing to the great number engaged in it. There has been a vast number of failures, and more are expected.— One individual failed for one million one hundred thousand dollars. The truth is, there must be one grand crash here. I have lost some fees by these failures.

This is a bad place for me at this time.— Every body in the west knows me, and many think they have claims on me on the score of political favor; and for mere support. They come here without a dollar wherewith to buy a crust of bread, and they are continually calling upon me for aid. I cannot refuse them. It is hard to see a respectable man in a cold and selfish community like this, and nothing to eat and no place to sleep. This is a terrible tax upon me, and I must quit the place as soon as possible. I will wind up my affairs as soon as I can, for I am anxious to see you all. There has been a war at Sacramento City, in which many lives were lost. The desperate condition to which many are reduced in this country will lead to all manner of crime—robberies and thefts are the order of the day. I was much surprised two weeks ago to see the two Messrs. Anderson step into my office. I regret their coming to this country, and I advised them to go up in the mines and work to procure enough to take them home, and to return without delay.

THE WOMAN'S RIGHTS CONVENTION.— A convention of persons friendly to the elevation of women, was held at Worcester, on Wednesday, Oct. 23d. There was a very large number of delegates present. Mrs. Paulina Wright Davis, of Rhode Island, was chosen the President of the body, and William H. Channing, of Boston, and Sarah Tyndale, of Pennsylvania, Vice Presidents. Hannah Darlington and Joseph C. Hathaway acted as Secretaries.

The President, on taking the chair, made an eloquent address, in which she expounded the doctrine of human rights at great length, and asserted the perfect equality of the sexes, and their joint right to all the blessings of existence. The address was somewhat more abstract and metaphysical than is usual at such meetings, but was received with applause.— Mrs. Lucretia Mott objected to one or two phrases, but approved of the general sentiment and style.

The following persons were appointed a Business Committee, to report resolutions and bring appropriate business before the Convention:

Mary A. W. Johnson, of Ohio; Wm. Lloyd Garrison, of Mass.; Ernestine L. Rose, of N. Y.; Harriet K. Hunt, of Boston; Lucretia Mott, of Penn; Lucy Stone, of Mass; Wm. H. Channing, E. Capron, of R. I; Abby H. Price, of Mass; Wm. H. Fish, of Hopedale; Samuel May, Jr., of Boston; Susan Sisan, of R. I.; Anna Parsons, of Mass; Frederick Douglass, of N. Y.

Letters were read from the following persons, expressing sympathy with the objects and principles of the convention, and some of them giving their views on the subject: Elizur Wright, of Boston; Esther Ann Lukens, of New Garden, O.; Lucius A. Hine, Esq., of Cincinnati; and Eliza Wilson of Cadiz, Ohio.

The business committee, in the course of the various sessions, reported the following resolutions:

Whereas, The very contracted sphere of action prescribed for Woman, arising from an unjust view of her nature, capacities, and powers, and from the infringement of her just rights, as an equal with man, is highly injurious to her physical, mental and moral develepement; therefore

Resolved, That we will not cease our earnest endeavors to secure for her political, legal, and social equality with man, until her proper sphere is determined, by what alone should determine it, and her powers and capacities, strengthened and refined by an education in accordance.

Resolved, That every human being, of full age, and resident for a proper length of time on the soil of the nation, who is required to obey the law, is entitled to a voice in its enactment; that every such person whose property or labor is taxed for the support of the government, is entitled to a direct share in such government; therefore,

Resolved, That women are clearly entitled to the right of suffrage, and to be considered eligible to office, the omission to demand which on their part is a palpable recreancy to duty; and the denial of which is a gross usurpation on the part of man—no longer to be endured —and that every party which claims to represent the humanity, the civilization and the progress of the age, is bound to inscribe on its banners, equality before the law without distinction of sex or color.

Resolved, That civil and political rights acknowledge no sex, and therefore the word "male" should be stricken from every state constitution.

These resolutions were discussed with more or less force by Mrs. Rose, Mrs. Mott, Mrs. Price, Mr. Channing, and Wendell Phillips. The aim of the various speeches was to establish the following points:

1st. That women have the same right to develope their whole nature, as men, and therefore should have the same opportunity.

2d. That all professions and trades, with the rewards of labor, should be made as free to females as they are to males.

3d. That political rights and franchises should not be held as the exclusive possession of one sex.

The proceedings appear to have been conducted with harmony.

A COQUETTE, at a Ball, asked a gentlemen who was adjusting her tucker, if he could flirt a fan. "No, madam," answered he, proceeding to use it, "but I can fan a flirt."

THE POPULAR CYCLOPEDIA OR MODERN DOMESTIC MEDICINE

BY KEITH IMRAY, M. D.

Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians, and Licentiate of the Royal College of Surgeons, Edinburgh.

AMERICAN EDITION.

One large Octavo Volume, substantially bound.

THIS work presents a concise but clear view of the predisposing causes, premonitory signs, and distinguishing symptoms of disease, with the methods of cure recommended by the most eminent physicians.

The best modes of employing the medicines in general use are faithfully described; and the most approved rules for regulating diet and regimen during the periods of disease and convalescence, are amply furnished.

The art of Preserving Health, embracing special Treatises on Diet, Air, Temperance, Bathing, Clothing, and Exercise, is fully considered.

The publishers of the American edition have introduced Dr. Imray's work with short, illustrated, very complete sketches of Anatomy, Physiology and Surgery; and with directions for the domestic management of the sick, the preparation of their food, and the economy of the sick room, &c. They have also annexed a comprehensive MOTHER'S MEDICAL GUIDE, containing directions for the preservation of health during pregnancy, rules for managing the lying-in-room, and the treatment of infants, including air, clothing, exercise, &c. Also, a large number of valuable prescriptions, arranged for ready application; and a very full classified table of medicines, exhibiting their medicinal properties, doses and uses.

The Index is unusually complete, making the whole a most perfect and valuable work for families.

It can confidently be recommended to physicians and apothecaries, as well as to the public, as a book that will be found singularly convenient for ready reference.

Estabrook, Hunker, is elected to the Assembly over S. D. Hastings, Free Soil, in the Geneva District, by 14 majority. Mr. Hastings has been an active temperance man, and Mr. Estabrook has been the attorney of the liquor sellers.

Winnebago Co. gives Doty 947 majority, and two towns to be heard from. Eastman elected to the Assembly. Jefferson Co., gives him 900 majority, and Whig County ticket elected.

New York.—Whig State Ticket elected:—Hunt, by a small majority.

CRAZY.—The election has shattered what few brains the editor of the Wisconsin formerly had, so that it mixes up Arithmetic, prophecy, "favorable allusions," falsehood, envy, spite, malice, disappointment, chagrin, indecencies, inanities and himself, in about equal quantities. Ever since "Heavenly B," made such a fool of himself in our office, that the friend who came with him would have kicked him out of it, but for our expostulation, he seems to have become the Editor's chief adviser and assistant, and our cotemporary felicitates himself on having such a graceless and contemptible youth to do the dirtiest part of his work. Excluded from decent society, or tolerated as a bore or an unabateable nuisance, wherever his merits are fully known, he is a very appropriate attache of the Wisconsin. We congratulate our neighbor on his excellent taste in observing the proprieties.

☞ The Advertiser had not ascertained this morning who was elected to Congress from this District, and does not even make, a favorable allusion to the probability that Mr. Elmore is defeated. It is too much overwhelmed with grief to be able to talk on such a subject.

☞ The election of Monagas, President of Venezuela, it was thought would produce a Revolution.

☞ A man named Bassett, shot himself, while hunting, at Kenosha, the 4th inst., and expired in a few minutes.

THE BANNER TOWN.

Paris, in Kenosha County, gave Charles Durkee 109, and Andrew E. Elmore NONE. Paris is therefore, the Banner Town of the District.

We have voted a copy of the Free Democrat, to that town, to be sent to the Town Clerk, until the close of the Presidential election in 1852. This is the highest compliment we can pay them.

LATEST NEWS.

The Empire City, arrived at New York, from Chagres, at 10 A. M., Nov, 6th, with 300 passengers, and $2,000,000 in gold dust.

The squatter war cost $11,000. Flour $9 16, a barrel. Rates of money, 5 to 8 per cent a month,

State election was to be held Oct. 7th.

A fire at San Francisco destroyed half a million of dollars. The Pacific News office lost $30,000. The Italian Theatre, and Washington Market were burned.

A Southern Rights' meeting at Savannah, Nov. 1st, Resolved, that the people of Georgia, would not submit to the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia, and the interdiction of the slave trade between the States, or the enactment of the Wilmot Proviso, or the repeal of the Fugitive Slave Law.

No choice for Congress in the contested district, Vermont.

Steamer Asia, left New York for Liverpool, Nov. 6th, with 70 passengers, and $230,000, in specie.

Gov. Ramsey, and R. W. Thompson are appointed Commissioners to treat with the Sioux Indians, Minnesota, with Thos. Foster, Secretary.

Mayor Bigelow, of Boston, not satisfying the temperance men, they are going to vote for temperance alderman, &c. If they should carry out that principle here, we fear they would have to go out of the city for officers.

"THE LAST OF THE MOHICANS."—Josiah Bond, who was so anxious to have the Free Soilers go back to Hunkerism last fall, is defeated, as a candidate for Assembly by Johnson, Whig, by 4 majority. Mr. Bond supported Elmore, and the people did not wish to unite on such a Bond.

☞ The telegraph reports, under the market head, "Whiskey easier for Prison." We suppose that's the reason why so many go to Prison. Whiskey makes all crime easier to be committed.

☞ Dr. Enoch Chase has 168 majority for the Assembly, in the Lake and Greenfield District.

☞ The Wisconsin thinks the Democrats will have done well when they have reduced Durkee's majority to 1,000. We can only reply then, that they have done very badly according to the Wisconsin.

It also says, that 245 majority for John White, for Sheriff, "shows the strength of the Democratic organization in this county." Why not say in so many words thas it shows the weakness of the candidate, for that is what you mean by the paragraph.

☞ The Auburn Daily Advertiser, Gov. SEWARD'S home organ, publishes, with tacit approval, the following resolution of a meeting at Port Byron:—

Resolved, That the action of the general government in behalf of human slavery, since the death of Gen. Taylor, through the agency of our Cayuga co. born, and New York State bred and fed accidental apology for President, Millard Fillmore, Esq., affords another melancholly instance in human history, of the unsafety of entrusting important events to "understrappers," and also that of another human viper stinging to death the very bosom that warmed it into life.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.

Mr. Webster arrived here to-day. The Board of Naval Officers is determining upon a substitute for flogging in the Navy. Drunkenness has increased, the lives of the officers are jeopardized, and they have appealed to the President to arrest these evils.

The Mexican boundary party sent $500 to the widow of their late associate, Pennant, who was killed by the teamster.

HORACE MANN.—The telegraph brings the intelligence that a meeting of the friends of Mr. Mann was to be held, to protest against the injustice done to him by the Whig Convention of the district, which nominated Mr. Walley over him by some half dozen majority. The Free Soilers will stand by him to a man, besides a large portion of the Whigs, and he can hardly fail of re-election.

TOO MUCH SLEEP.—The veteran editor of the Washington Union, in alluding to the immense amount of labor which he performs each day, says:

"Undergoing privations which few could endure: sitting up for instance, for 11 consecutive nights, until three or four o'clock in the morning, and rising next morning at eight, and then, after an interval of three nights, burning the midnight taper till daybreak for two other nights. No one could endure these physical sacrifices, except one who had been accustomed to the most arduous labor for forty-six years."

Upon the Union's blunder, the New York Evening Post, coolly remarks;

"The veteran writer certainly keeps very unusual hours for a man of his age with a family; but we do not see the propriety of his complaints of a want of sleep. A man who retires between three and four o'clock of one morning, and sleeps until the following morning at eight, twenty-eight consecutive hours, ought to get rest enough, if his conscience allows him any thing like a fair chance."

CITY ITEMS.

ELECTION ITEMS.

Some rich scenes were enacted at the polls, on Tuesday last. A great number of the "indipindint" electors seemed to entertain very vague ideas of the rights, duties and qualifications of voters, and the process of "enlightening" them was often highly laughable.

A raw German from the "bush" appeared to have gone the rounds and came to the 1st Ward to desposite the "last of the series."—He was promptly challenged, and when made to understand the nature of the obstacle in the way of his counting up any more in the canvass, his indignation rose to a proportionate height:—"Mine nam' ish Hans Snidiker, I lif in den push, and, mine Cott, I haf vote tree times to-tay unt I no schware tam, for mine vote vonce." Refusing to swear in his ballot, it was rejected.

Another, a son of the Emerald Isle who had swore in his vote three times within a half an hour, at the first ward polls, was arrested for illegal voting, but gave his word:—"By Jabers, its myself that lives in Greenfield, and I haven't been in town a half an hour, and how thin can I 'ave vouted three times, och ye, murther! ye spalpeens, go home, and I'll go too."

A green one approached the polls in the 2d Ward, and wanted to know the price of tickets, said, he'd like to vote if it did not cost too much. A man standing outside said he would only charge him a shilling, and that "he might go in."

—In the 4th Ward, "Fritz, the man that opens oysters at Belden's," got one vote for Congress.

—John Doe, also got one vote for Congress. and Jenny Lind one vote for Surveyor.

—One of "the brethren" in the 5th Ward being challenged, was told that he must swear in his vote, replied, that he "was not in the habit of using profane language," and with a shrug of holy horror, he turned on his heel and marvelled.

SPRING STREET BRIDGE.—This commodious structure came to a "settlement" last night. The first float sunk, carrying down with it a part of the bridge. If it would "settle" for the money it has cost the city, and with the citizens for the time they have spent being its waiters in it would do well.

BEFORE THE POLICE COURT.—PATRICK MARONY, was yesterday examined before Justice Walworth, for the murder of his child, on the 13th of October. It was a plain case, and he was committed for trial. If he escapes with his neck he will be lucky.

THE GREEK SLAVE.—This is one of the most beautiful productions of art that it has ever been our pleasure to witness. One of the most noble works of genius—its beauty, its magnificence and its chaste purity are past all description. We are glad to see that it is extensively visited by our citizens with their families. Let all, high and low, great and small, rich and poor, go and see this splendid statue, and glory in the work of an American artist.

LIFE ASSURANCE.

☞ Ætna Insurance Company, HARTFORD, CONN.—ANNUITY FUND, $150,000.—This well known and long established Company, having organized a new department for LIFE INSURANCE, with an entirely distinct capital, exclusively pledged with its reserved accumulations, for the payment of losses upon Life Insurance only, and in no event liable for the other debts, contracts, or engagements of the Company, is now prepared to issue Policies on Lives, at rates materially reduced from those charged by the Mutual Companies. The leading idea of the system adopted by this Company, is, to ascertain precisely what it is worth to insure a given amount upon a life for a certain time, and to charge precisely that sum, and no more: it is attended with none of those vexatious contingencies which are inseparable from the mutual system—it has nothing to do with scrip dividends or bonuses, the declaration of which upon true and equitable principles, is attended with so much difficulty and perplexity—it is perfectly simple, as well as uniform and equal in all its operations.

The promptness, fairness and liberality which have marked all the dealings of this Company, for a period of thirty years, and the well known character of its officers and directors, afford the surest guaranty that its affairs will be so managed as to afford to the assured that ultimate safety and security which is of first importance in Life Assurance.

Policies will be granted payable after death, or upon the party's arriving at a specified age, at his option; in either case, free from the claims of creditors The usual extra risks will be assumed by this Company at reasonable rates.

Pamphlets containing Rates of Premium, and information in relation to the plan of operations, and all necessary papers to effect insurance, may be obtained at the Agency of this Company.

The Daily Democrat.

THE MORMONS AT BEAVER ISLAND—A Mo - - Beaver Island, as our readers are aware, is an island in the Western part of Lake Michigan, settled by the "Latter day Saints," under the spiritual, temporal and physical government of Prophet Strang, formerly of Voree, in this State, and Adams, another worthy of the same class, only not quite so notorious. Strang's ideas of family obligations, and of the rights of property being quite peculiar, and as he generally carried out his views, as he had opportunity, some of the brethren became dissatisfied with him, and made choice of Adams, to lead on the revolt. The region, Strang had himself proclaimed "King of the whole earth." Some of the more democratic of the brethren, however, appealed to the proper U. S. authorities and the King and Prophet was arrested, and conveyed to the jug in Mackinaw, on complaint for bigamy, theft, treason and other choice crimes. Indictments were found against him and he gave bail to appear.

INFORMATION WANTED.—JOHN MARSHALL, talk about 25 years old, dark hair and blue eyes, a native of Leeds, in Yorkshire. His wife's name is Helen, has three children whose names are, John, George, and Thomas. Eliza Dillen, the Mother-in-Law of Marshall, is in Milwaukee. Mr. Marshall may find directions where he can be found, to the Rector of St. Paul's Church, Milwaukee, or to the Rev. Mr. Hoyt, of Watertown.

☞ Waukesha and Watertown papers please copy.

☞ We were privately made acquainted with the fact a day or two ago, that a slaveholder from the South, Missouri, we believe, was in the city, hounding on the track of some fugitives. We did not make it public, as we thought it expedient first to ascertain what would be his course.

Since then, he has applied to one of our most respectable firms of Lawyers to aid him in his business, by whom he was promptly refused.

We now take this occasion to make publicly known, that a slave hunter is in our midst, preparing to fix his clutches on some of our most inoffensive, peaceable, industrious colored citizens, and to carry them back to slavery. By request, we also warn him that he is watched, that keen eyes are upon him, that strong hands and ready means are waiting to prevent any and all from his grasp. Violence is no threatened, but the sooner he turns back and leaves his purpose unaccomplished, the better it will be for him, and the better for the peace and quiet of the city.

A. W. Gordon, Esq., a public spirited and patriotic citizen of Mobile, has donated to that city an entire square of ground, to be called Washington Square, on condition that it be fenced in and otherwise improved, and kept as a public promenade ground. All of our cities and towns should have one or two just such men as this Mr. Gordon.

Manufactures are flourishing in some parts of Texas. At the village of Vincent's Town, in Rusk county, a manufactory of articles of iron ware has been established, and a wool carding machine added. At San Antonio Messrs. Harper & Martin have put up machinery for the manufacture of woolen matrasses.

FUGITIVE ARRESTED.—On the 26th ult., a Fugitive Slave, named Parker, was arrested in Williamsburgh, N. Y. A party of butchers immediately rescued him from the hands of the officers, and he escaped to parts unknown. Who will say after this that there is no humanity among butchers?

SUICIDE.—Wm. K. Armstrong, former Sheriff of Grundy County, committed suicide, by cutting his throat with a razor, at his mother's residence, near Ottawa, on Friday last.—Chicago Tribune.

CONVICTED OF MANSLAUGHTER.—Henry Stygar, and Henry Elenking, were on Friday convicted of manslaughter in the Cook County Court of Common Pleas, for the murder of Christopher Weelkink, at Elk Grove, in June last, and sentenced to four years imprisonment in the Penitentiary.

—Stewart & Tunnichiff, merchants of Penn-Yan N. Y., have failed to the amount of $200,000. Their credit heretofore has been good.

—Mr. Edwin Johnson, of North Elyria, O, was drowned off Detroit river, being knocked overboard from a boat by the boom during a heavy gale. He was an estimable young man.

—"Can you tell me," asks a pundit "why a conundrum that nobody can guess is like a ghost?" "Shall I tell you now or next month?" "Now if you please." Well, sir, because sooner or later everybody must give it up."

Light Ho!—One of the Foo Foo exquisites on getting into an omnibus, last night, found the stage Lantern burning low—in the last flickering agonies of expiring lamp-wick.

"Look hea driver," shuddered he, "this illuminatow is shockingly opaque—it is decidedly dem dawk! Drivaw," and he appeared to be afflicted with an important idea; "Drivaw, why don't you light your coach with gas?"

The "Drivaw" fell off his seat.

—"That's a very mild cheese," said the grocer. "O yes," replied an old squaw who stood near it, "He berry mile—I smell um two mile!"

—It is said there is a man down East whose feet are so large, that he cannot get a glimpse of the ground without throwing a somerset—a feat rather difficult for him to perform.

—A colored gentleman, who had probably, been "taking something," writes to Frederick Douglass, that this government has been considered the model of heaven, but he is inclined to believe that the devil would do well to rent out hell, and move to the United States.

—A young lady, of delicate health, in this city, says the Portsmith Clipper, attempted suicide by eating seven ears of green corn, a few days ago. No cause assigned.

—A Kentucky editor, strongly opposed to camp meetings, says he has no notion of t camping out, on his road to heaven."

—"I don't like to patronize this line," said a culprit to a hangman. "O never mind this once," was the reply, "it will soon suspend its operation."

—Washington Irving relates that Abdallah, the father of Mahomet, was so beautiful that "no less than two hundred Arab maidens died of a broken heart the night he was married to Amina."

—We saw a young lady the other day, who came from the interior of Wisconsin, all alone, to New York. She said that she had a little shopping to do, as New York was about the cheapest place to do it in. She staid in the city two weeks, and returned, as she came.—alone!—Post.

—There are two hundred buildings in the course of erection at Rochester, N. Y.

—Some wicked wag of a lawyer, in one of our county courts, once upon a time, scandalized the bench, by putting the following query to his professional brethren:—

"Why is Judge ——— like neccessity?"

The "members of the bar" then and there present, quickly answered;—

"Because he knows no law!"

—Theodore Parker compares some men who grow suddenly rich, to cabbages growing in a violet bed: they smother the violets, but are, after all, nothing but cabbage heads.

—A squibbling writer of the last century observes, with great quaintness, that when the cannons of princes began war, the authority of the canons of the church was destroyed.—"It was, says he, "first mitrum that governed the world and then nitrum—first Saint Peter, and then Salt Petre."

—A member of the Connecticut Assembly moved for leave to bring in a bill for extending the powers of justices. Another requested, as a previous motion, that a statute might be passed to extend their capacities.

TRADE AND COMMERCE.

DAILY FREE DEMOCRAT OFFICE,
Nov. 7, 1850.

Very little has been doing for a week past in the way of trade, except at retail.

Not enough wheat has been brought in to keep the mills going in their full capacity. None at all is going into store. Shipments are in small quantities.

THE EMIGRANT:
A Weekly Paper to be published in Milwaukee, on Saturday, the first week of December, 1850, and every succeeding Saturday.
☞Terms—$2 00 per annum, quarterly in advance
To those who behold—every year—thousands of toiling and industrious human beings, coming to seek a home, and a shelter, far from the land of their childhood, in this American Republic, it may not appear strange that a man, (an Irish Emigrant himself,) should think of establishing a newspaper, devoted, in some measure, to the instruction and guidance of his fellows—a directory, as it were, to the stranger, in fixing on a set principle of action, suited alike to all grades and all calibres—cautioning the unwary and unitiated, against the numerous snares and many pitfalls, that are constantly laid in their innocent way, [by the designing and cruel-hearted,] in which they lose their property, their peace of mind, and often times their health, never, never, (perhaps with few exceptions,) to recover those pecuniary losses, or their former happiness.
The public are aware how many aspersions our old country men are subjected to, (sometimes deserved, but oftener not—intoxication, quarreling, and theft being the principal accusations in the calendar of crimes,) but it must be acknowledged that those misfortunes befall us from the want of some kind monitor—some trustworthy friend, to keep us in the right way, and guide our steps through the mazes of danger and vice, into which the young and unguarded fall, without knowing when that danger is at hand, or how to avoid it.
To bring the settler then to a just level with the native citizen, in every department, will be the proudest task of the Editor, and if the success of the undertaking be only partial for a time, still, with a little encouragement from the people, the laborer will be excited to greater action, and renewed perseverance, disclaiming [in toto] all party politics, at the same time exposing injustice and unmasking fraud, infamy, and deceit, too commonly practiced in a new country.
The increasing poverty of Ireland, and other European countries, [accompanied, alas! this harvest, with the failure of the wheat and potatoe crop,] must drive half a million more, next spring, to the friendly shores of this continent, and therefore, it is more than ever necessary, that our brethren should have reliable information and unprejudiced advice in a public print.
The hardy and bold man from the Mountains of Kerry—the plodding, sober-minded, of the rich fields of Limerick or Meath—the industrious artizan of Manchester or Birmingham—the rough, healthy-looking farmer of Leicester or Norfolk—the far-off Highlander of Caithness, or the more refined Southerner from Clyde Dale, may all profit alike by some organ suited to their tastes, yet drawing them still closer, in heart and mind, to the interests and welfare of their adopted nation.
We close this notice with a hope that this publication will obtain a fair patronage, from all classes, [the people of Wisconsin in particular,] and with the assurance that our motto shall be—"The truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth!" oct15-d1d

Latest and best Collection of Church Music.
NOW READY,
THE GOLDEN LYRE:
A NEW Collection of Church Music, adapted to the various metres now in use, together with a great variety of new Anthems, Sentences and Chants, for choirs, singing classes, musical associations, and social sacred music circles—by V C TAYLOR, author of "Taylor's Sacred Music Minstrel," "Choral Anthems," &c &c
"We have explored its contents enough to dare to speak well of it. Mr Taylor is, himself, the author of a good part of the work, and he shows musical feeling, taste and invention, which make it no presumption in him to appear as a composer * * * Mr Taylor's pieces are commended by their melody woven into all the four parts, by their expressiveness, which always varies with the subject, and by their uniformly artistic style * * * And last, but not least, the work is more beautifully and clearly printed than any work which we remember of the kind"—N Y Tribune
"We believe the book to be greatly superior to any that has preceded it, and we think it may claim to be better adapted to, and more suitable for, the use of choirs"—Saroni's Musical Times
"We have examined this new collection of church music, and would add our favorable opinion of its merits, to the many encomiums it has elicited"—N Y Evangelist

Varnish, Glass, Brushes, Perfumery, Soaps,
FANCY GOODS, &c &c
THE Proprietor of this old and well known Store, having made arrangements for a HEAVY FALL TRADE,
by the purchase of an immense stock of every thing in the line, unusually large even for this Establishment, confidently invites attention to his stock, assured that for quality, cheapness, comprehensiveness, and care in selection, it cannot be excelled by any concern west of Buffalo. As the reputation of his establishment renders unnecessary the common practice of enumerating articles and affixing to them qualities both fabulous and ridiculous, he will merely assure his patrons that he has been unwearied in selecting his stock of entire purity, and having bought close and in large quantities, is enabled to defy competion in the sale of it.
East India and Mediterranean Drugs,
FRENCH, ENGLISH & AMERICAN CHEMICALS,
PAINTS, OILS, DYE-STUFFS,

Wynkoop's Tonic Mixture, Dr Starkweather's Hepatic Elixir, Hebrew Plaster, and Resurrection Pills, &c
Wholesale Agency for the sale of the original and genuine
Dr. S. P. Townsend's Sarsaparilla.
Those who HAVE extended their patronage tot this establishment in times past, are assured that INCREASED ATTENTION and assiduity will be exercised to give them entire satisfaction in all their dealings with him, and to merit their continuance. Those who are STRANGERS, are invited to look in and are assured that no house west of the Lakes possesses more ample facilities for furnishing them with every article in the line, at the lowest rates. As Careful and experienced Packers only are employed, purchasers may rely on receiving their Goods sound and in good order, with ordinary care on the part of the teamster.

Blank Book Manufactory and Stationery.
170 East Water street,
Third door north of Michigan street, up stairs,
And 335 Third st., 2d Ward, old stand,
Milwaukee, - - - Wisconsin.

HENRY NIEDECKEN,
A PRACTICAL BOOK-BINDER of long experience, in all its branches, would most respectfully inform the citizens of Milwaukee and the surrounding country, that he is prepared to bind any description of Books, being possessed of the best gilding and finishing tools, and keeping constantly on hand the first quality of binding material. He has found it necessary, by reason of increasing business, (consequent upon his low price and superior quality of work and materials,) to open another
Bindery, Ruling and Blank Book Establishment, for the convenience of his "down town" friends, at the above mentioned place, where he will be happy to see his old customers and as many new ones as will favor him with their patronage.
Blank Books for banks, merchants, county clerks, recorders, auditors, treasurers, school commissioners, magistrates, insurance offices, &c, manufactured in the best manner, which in elegance, durability, and superiority of style and finish, will not be surpassed by any eastern manufacturer. In all his large blank books, he uses the improved patent mode of sewing, which gives strength, with great elasticity, and is incomparably superior to any other method for blank books, and will keep the leaves firm and solid while the book lasts, instead of coming to pieces, as is often the case with all other methods. No additional charge is made for this improvement.
Machine Ruling.—Ruling of every description, for blank books, tax lists, &c, neatly and promptly executed.
Fancy Articles.—He is also prepared to make all kinds of fancy articles, such as ladies' and gentlemen's portfolios, caskets, card, spectacle and segar cases, pocket books, &c. with neatness and despatch.
Ruled Music Paper.—He will also keep on hand a supply of blank paper ruled for manuscript music, which he can sell at so low a price that it will be a great saving of time, labor and money, to buy this all ruled and ready for writing the music
Albums, Magazines, Music Books, &c, will be bound with the greatest care, and in a neat and elegant style to which the attention of the ladies is most particularly invited.
Bibles, Hymn, Prayer and School Books, are constantly kept on hand, as also
STATIONERY, of all kinds, such as writing paper, ink, quills, steel pens, sealing wax, slates, writing books, and wafers, and a variety of books too numerous to mention.
GILT PICTURE FRAMES.
He is also in constant receipt, (imported direct from Germany by himself,) of a superior article of gilt frames, of all sizes, which he will sell at prices which cannot fail of suiting purchasers. He will be happy to show his goods and style of work to all who will favor him with a call, as he is confident that he can please every variety of taste. By good work and honest dealing, he expects to gain the patronage of the citizens of Milwaukee and the surrounding country oct12 d24
